Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Mr. WATMOUGH, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported
the following bill:

A BILL

Concerning Naval Pensions and the Navy Pension Fund.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3 all the provisions and benefits of the act of the twenty-eighth
4 June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, entitled 5 "An act further to extend the pension heretofore granted to 6 the widows of persons killed, or who died in the naval service," 7 be, and the same are hereby, extended to the widows and chil-
8 dren of officers, seamen, and marines, who have died in the 9 naval service since the first day of January, one thousand eight 10 hundred and twenty-four, or who may die in said service, by 11 reason of disease contracted, or of injuries received while in 12 the line of their duty; and the pensions of such widows shall 13 commence from the time of the death of their husbands, re-
14 spectively.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there be re-
2 imbursed to the navy pension fund, out of any money in the 3 Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the cost of the stock of 4 the Bank of Columbia, heretofore purchased by the commis-

5 sioners of the said fund, and which now remains unredeemed
6 by the said bank, together with interest thereon from the 7 period at which said bank ceased to pay interest, to the time
8 of the reimbursement herein directed to be made; and, at the 9 period of said reimbursement, the said stock shall be trans-
10 ferred by the Secretary of the Navy to the Treasurer of the 11 United States.
